Euan Macleod - High and Low

Solo Exhibition

Cocktail Reception | Thursday 23 March

The Nockart Gallery, in partnership with the Nock Art Foundation, presents "High and Low," a solo exhibition of new paintings by New Zealand-born artist Euan Macleod. The exhibition comprises of 10 paintings on canvas and a selection from a suite of 41 works on paper created after a trip to China's spectacular Yellow Mountain (Huangshan) in 2016.

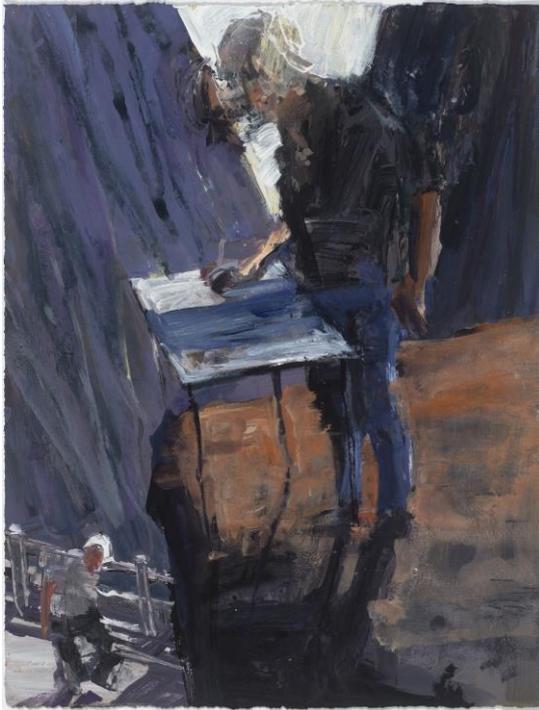

Macleod's paintings of Yellow Mountain exemplify an aesthetic of landscape painting that can be described as "Australasian"—through heavy strokes and smears of paint, Macleod shapes his vision of the granite rocks and pines that appear to emerge from mystical clouds, and injecting them with the presence of human figures, both real and imaginary.

About Euan Macleod

Born in Christchurch, New Zealand, in 1956, Euan Macleod creates deeply expressive paintings that straddle the figure, the landscape and the darker side of the human condition. Heavily textured canvas laden with smeared and scrapped paint imbues the works with an air of physicality and candid emotion.

Macleod, who has been living and working in Sydney since 1981, has been the subject of over 50 solo shows in Australia and New Zealand and has partaken in numerous group exhibitions in both Australia and internationally. His works are held in many private and public collections, including the Museum of New Zealand Te Papa Tongarewa in Auckland, the National Gallery of Australia in Canberra, and New York's Metropolitan Museum.

Euan Macleod will be present at the reception and Mr. Ken Gordon, Australian Deputy Consul-General to Hong Kong and Macau will be our guest of honor!
