Presented by AustCham Young Executive Committee

AustCham Deputy Chair Mr. Darren Bowdern invites you to:

17th CEO Forum Governing in Complex Times The Hong Kong Club | 16 Nov 2017

Good governance across all sectors is paramount, particularly in times of uncertainty or complexity.

Join us at a breakfast event with Angus Armour FAICD, Chief Executive Officer and Managing Director, Australian Institute of Company Directors (AICD), as he looks at governing in complex times.

Angus will discuss key governance trends in the Asia-Pacific region including director sentiment, trust, culture, foreign investment, shareholder activism, diversity and cybersecurity.

He will also explore the Match Fit report produced by AsiaLink Business in conjunction with PwC Australia and the Institute of Managers and Leaders. The report is a call to action to the Australian business community to get 'match fit' for a globally competitive playing field. The report stresses the need for Australia to build knowledge of and skill in doing business in Asia; a region central to Australia's long-term economic future.

Don't miss your place at this exclusive event.
